

September 19, 2022

Press release

Consumer Protection Movement - InfoCons signed a Cooperation Protocol with Consumer Forum Foundation, Poland

InfoCons - National Association for Consumer Protection and Promotion of Programs and Strategies in Romania, represented by its President Sorin Mierlea, has concluded a Protocol with Consume Forum Foundation, Poland, represented by its President Agnieszka Plencler

The protocol aims at developing and implementing programme and activities with a strong social impact, creating common projects through cross-border cooperation, mutual advice on consumer protection issues.

InfoCons - National Association for Consumer Protection and Promotion of Programs and Strategies in Romania - InfoCons (www.infocons.org), the only organization in Romania with full rights in Consumers International, is a non-governmental, representative, private law, non-profit consumer association, with distinct and indivisible patrimony, independent, based on democratic principles, defending consumer rights - founding member of the Federation of Consumer Associations.

Consumer Forum Foundation (www.forumkonsumentow.org) an independent organization in Poland, a powerful, active and objective voice of consumers in the public debate. Organisation build a constructive dialogue with decision-makers, corporations and entrepreneurs, providing for the consumer well-being.

By signing the Protocol, the two organisations confirm a long-standing cooperation and commit themselves institutionally to develop it on multiple levels, for the benefit of the citizens of Romania and Poland.

InfoCons[®]
PROTECTIA-CONSUMATORILOR.RO

